

National Trust

(Never Before Perform'd.)

The STAFF of the HOUSE beg most Respectfully to inform the Publick of Hampstead and its Vicinity that they intend to Present

A Georgian CHRISTMAS

at

Fenton House

by Arrangement with M^r PHILIP FENTON, Merchant of Riga, Squire of Fenton House, and Most Gracious Host of our Plentifull and Festive Entertainments, this year of Our Lord 1796, on Saturday and Sunday

3rd & 4th | 10th & 11th | 17th & 18th
DECEMBER, 11.00 'til 4.00

| with DECORATIONS proper to the Season | Rooms of the House "PUT TO BED" for Winter | a DARING trail for CHILDREN {with Sweet Reward} | Period MUSIC Perform'd |
HIGH TEA of HIGHGATE | Christmas GIFTS for Purchase |

- TICKETS to be had at the Door - £6.50 adult, £3 child. National Trust Members Free.